PUBLIC HEARINGS

3. Amend All Alcohol Common Victualler License

An application has been filed by Provo Brazil Steakhouse LLC dba Torino Restaurant & Bar, 415 Main Street, Hyannis for two amendments. (1) Change the corporate name from Provo Brazil Steakhouse LLC to Torino Restaurant & Bar LLC; and (2) alteration of premise description will be expanded to include outdoor roof bar area. Continued from July 10, 2023

Attorney John Kenney is present. The company changed the name back in 2017 and an amendment was submitted to the Secretary of the State but the license was never updated. The second matter is to add the roof deck to allow for dining, weather permitting. There is no change to the number of seats as they will block off a private room inside to allow use of the rooftop. Nunheimer confirmed the roof deck will operate at the same hours as the restaurant. No entertainment on the roof, just dining. Karlson-Lidman confirmed with Attorney Kenney that there will not be any piped in music on the patio. Officer Kelsey has some concerns with dining on the roofdeck after 9:00 pm at night. He is concerned that the noise will carry resulting in noise complaints. Attorney Kenney consulted with his client. The Kitchen closes at 10pm and they ask if they would agree to 10pm. Officer Kelsey is concerned that likely patrons will be around until 11pm finishing a meal. Fabio De Oliveira is present and notes that the kitchen is open until 10pm. Flores suggests stopping orders on the deck at 9pm. Nunheimer suggests no alcohol service after 10pm. Seating until 930pm, nothing after 10pm. Nunheimer advises if there are noise complaints they will be asked to come in. Flores suggests serving until 930 with patrons off the deck by 1030. Officer Kelsey agrees.

MOTION: Nancy Karlson-Lidman moved, seconded by John Flores, that the Licensing Authority approve this application as amended to allow patrons to enter the rooftop deck up until 930pm and must vacate after 1030pm, no alcohol service after 10pm.
